Thirteenth Sunday In Ordinary Time

Yet again in Ordinary Time, Jesus seems to demand extraordinary commitment. A would-be disciple enthusiastically volunteers to follow Jesus "wherever" (Luke 9:57). Jesus replies that "wherever" means "nowhere to rest his head" (9:58). To other candidates, Jesus brusquely denies reasonable requests to fulfill family obligations (9:59, 61), declaring that discipleship demands total commitment—now! But Jesus also demands that we not judge how others respond. When James and John volunteered to "call down fire from heaven" (9:54) to destroy an unwelcoming town, Jesus "turned and rebuked them" (9:55). All violence of any kind is completely unacceptable among Jesus' disciples, a lesson this Jubilee Year of Mercy is teaching the Christian community once again. Paul's challenge to the Galatians and us reinforces Jesus' decisive command to James and John that they express their commitment to him through compassion for others. We must abandon the violence of "biting and devouring one another" (Galatians 5:15), choosing instead to "serve one another through love" (5:13).

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading - The Lord tells Elijah to anoint Elisha as prophet to succeed him (1 Kings 19:16b, 19-21).

Psalms - You are my inheritance, O Lord (Psalm 16).

Second Reading - Use your freedom in Christ to serve one another through love (Galatians 5:1, 13-18).

Gospel — While journeying to Jerusalem, Jesus speaks of the costs of discipleship (Luke 9:51-62).

Decimotercer Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

En este, un domingo más del Tiempo Ordinario, parece que Jesús exige un compromiso extraordinario. Un aspirante entusiasmado a ser discípulo se ofrece de voluntario para seguir a Jesús "a donde sea" (Lucas 9:57). Jesús le contesta que "a donde sea" significa "no tener donde recostar la cabeza" (9:58). A otros aspirantes, Jesús bruscamente niega sus peticiones para seguirlo pues les antepone razonablemente sus responsabilidades y obligaciones familiares (9:59, 61), expresando que ahora ser discípulo exige compromiso completo. Pero Jesús también exige que no juzguemos cómo responden otras personas. Cuando Santiago y Juan se ofrecen para "hacer caer fuego del cielo" (9:54) para destruir una ciudad que no los recibió, Jesús "los reprende" (9:55). Cualquier tipo de violencia es completamente inaceptable entre los discípulos de Jesús, una lección este Año Jubilar de la Misericordia es enseñar una vez más a la comunidad cristiana. El desafío de Pablo a los gálatas y a nosotros refuerza el mandamiento decisivo de Jesús a Santiago y Juan que ellos expresaran su compromiso hacia los demás con compasión. Debemos dejar de ser violentos y dejar "comernos y devorarnos unos a otros" (Gálatas 5:15), eligiendo en su lugar "servir uno al otro por medio del amor" (5:13).

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

An old and still vital treasure in our tradition is a document called the "Apostolic Traditions," giving us a snapshot of church life in third-century Rome. Its author, Hippolytus, describes the liturgical life of the church and records the actual texts of the prayers. The way he explained the various "orders" of the church was the basis for a major reform of the rites of ordination by Pope Pius XII in 1947, and later for the Second Vatican Council. Hippolytus tells us that a bishop had to be elected by the entire people, and that ordination had to take place on a Sunday in the presence of the people, the presbyters, and neighboring bishops. The bishop-candidate is ordained by the other bishops, who impose their hands on his head while everyone else keeps a profound silence, awaiting the outpouring of the Spirit. There is a prayer of blessing said by one of them, on behalf of all, asking for the Spirit and describing his ministry.

Later centuries layered new features on top of this liturgy, including the requirement for three bishop consecrators. Today, whenever a new bishop is announced (election by the people is no more), a kind of genealogy is provided, tracing his pedigree through the consecrating bishops down through the centuries to Peter and the first body of believers. Every bishop today can trace his office through his consecrators back to the beginning in a tradition called "apostolic succession."

PROTECTING OUR CHILDREN

Did You Know?

The pace of online gaming is only growing. There is a small but real chance that victimization could occur when kids play and interact with others on phones, tablets, laptops, desktops and gaming consoles. A helpful way to teach children about handling problems is to encourage them to report issues when they arise. Internet service providers and gaming networks have systems set up to field complaints of abuse and then investigate them (in conjunction with law enforcement, when necessary). For more tips on how to help protect young people from vulnerabilities while playing online please email jvienna@la-archdiocese.org or call (213) 637-7227 to receive a copy of the VIRTUS® article "Preventing Cyberbullying in Online Gaming, Part 2."

Proteja a los niños del acoso o "bullying" mientras juegan en Internet

El paso de los juegos en línea sigue aumentando. Existe una pequeña, pero real oportunidad de que pueda ocurrir la victimización cuando los niños juegan e interactúan con otros en teléfonos, tabletas, laptops, computadoras de mesa y consolas de juego. Una manera útil de enseñar a los niños sobre cómo manejar problemas es animarlos a reportar problemas cuando estos surjan. Los proveedores de servicio de Internet y las redes de juegos por Internet tienen sistemas establecidos para recibir quejas de abuso y luego las investigan (en conjunto con la policía, cuando es necesario). Para más consejos sobre cómo ayudar a proteger a los niños y jóvenes de las vulnerabilidades mientras juegan en línea, por favor envíe un correo electrónico abmelendez@la-archdiocese.org llame al (213) 637-7508 para recibir una copia del artículo de VIRTUS®, "Preventing Cyberbullying in Online Gaming, Part 2" (Previendo el acoso cibernético en los juegos en línea, Parte 2).
